

The Descendants of Eve Getchey Eller

Updated & Compiled by Harvey Powers, 25 May 2020

Preface & Introduction

Eve Eller (~1780-1835) is one of the two youngest children of John Jacob Eller, who emigrated from Germany in the 1740's or 1750's. John Jacob Eller married Maria Eva Gottge (Ketchey) and they had eight children.ⁱ

After her death, he married a woman he identifies in his will as "Barbary." It is generally believed that she is Barbary Eury/Arey. In his willⁱⁱ he refers to "my two youngest children that the said Barbary bore unto me." He identifies one as Eve Eller. The name of the second is not known.

Eve was probably born about 1780-1781.ⁱⁱⁱ Her mother, Barbary Arey/Eury Eller died about 1781 and she has clearly passed by 1782 when John Jacob writes his will.

John Jacob Eller's will^{iv} says "...my will is further that the Widow Eury shall have care of my daughter Eve as she hath had the care of her ever since the death of its mother..."

Jo Treece Basden^v has researched the Arey line says the "Widdow Eury" is Mary Catherine Arey, the widow of Peter Arey.

Some believe the entrusting of Eve to her grandmother's care suggests Eve may have been handicapped in some way. There is no other evidence of this and I see it as unlikely based on Eve's life after her marriage and move to Illinois.

Barbary Arey Eller married David Crotzer (Crotser) in Rowan County, NC in 1795.

In the pages that follow, we attempt to trace these Eller/Crotzer descendants.

First Generation

1. Eve Getchey Eller¹⁻² was born between 1780 and 1790 in Rowan County, North Carolina.^{1,3} She died in 1835 at the age of 55 in Fayette County, IL.³ In his will Jacob says "...my will is further that the Widow Eury (Eary) shall have the care of my daughter Eve as she hath had the care of it ever since the death of its Mother." This led James Hook and others to suggest that Eve may have been handicapped and Widow Eary may have been the mother of his second wife, Barbary.

Eve Eller Crotser and David Crotser (shown sometimes as Crotzer) left Rowan County, NC circa 1825 for Fayette Co, IL. with their children. David could have died along the way or in Fayette County prior to the 1835 State Census. Eve Eller, his wife, was on that 1835 Census. We find the family on the 1790 thru 1820 Rowan County Census and V-122 #0004 Fayette County State Census.

Eve Getchey Eller and David CROTZER were married on 2 Jun 1795 in Rowan County, North Carolina. Researchers do not agree on Eve Eller Crotzer's children. Six of them are generally accepted. Ruth Goodman cites the six as George, Daniel, John, Margaret, David Jr.(shown sometimes as Davis), and Millie. Robert and Delores Wyant also show Jacob, Elizabeth and Nancy Maria. David CROTZER¹⁻⁵ was born in 1777 in Rowan County, NC. He died on 10 Feb 1835 at the age of 58 in Fayette County, IL.³

He died on 14 Dec 1880 at the age of 69 in Fayette County, IL.⁷ Jacob Crotser never married (this is disputed in the Family Search database), listed on the 1860 Fayette Co. census along with two children, Daniel and Mariah Crotser, who are children of Daniel and Nancy Owens. Daniel and Nancy was not on the 1860 census and may have died prior to 1860 leaving Jacob as care giver.

There are marriage records for a Jacob Crotzer marrying Elizabeth Harrison on 5 Nov 1811. This is not this Jacob as 1811 is the same year this Jacob is born.
